It seems that Leonard and Rebecca went to live at Cranbrook (where we think Rebecca was born) after their marriage and had at least one child there: Leonard Hickmott, baptized on 9 July 1744. We think that Leonard snr died at Cranbrook in 1757 and Rebecca there in 1784. Their son, Leonard, probably married Elizabeth Austen at Cranbrook in 1763.

Stephen and Rebecca had two children at Horsmonden – Stephen (1789) and Harriet (1792) – three at Brenchley - John (1795), Richard (1797) and David (1800) – and possibly one at Pembury: Thomas (1803). We haven't as yet been able to determine Stephen's parents although his marriage record notes that he was from Brenchley which suggests that he may have been the son of John Hickmott and Elizabeth Miles and was baptized there on 15 December 1755.]

	Born at Pembury in around 1796, the daughter of Lawrence and Elizabeth Taylor, Jane married Thomas Hickmott, the son of Thomas Hickmott and Elizabeth Wibley of Lamberhurst, in around 1826. They had five children we are aware of: Ruth (1827), George (1829), William (1831), Harriet (1832) and Henry (1833) before Thomas was transported with his brother Samuel to Australia in 1840. Jane continued to live at Pembury until her death there in 1873.
